

Documentation

GoPro provides Manuals and documentation based on the categorization of its Products.

- Manuals
 - Manuals are available by request.
 - GoPro provides manuals for our key Solutions.
 - Software
 - Assets
 - Service offerings
 - Due the nature of service offerings and usual level of customization for each customer, we do not provide complete user manuals. Depending on what is agreed on in each respective project, we may produce complete manuals for individual users.
 - Technology
 - No manuals are provided for Technology.
 - We are moving towards on-line manuals accessible directly from products. These are already available for some of our products, including GoPro Foris.
- Release notes
 - GoPro sends out information on latest releases. These notices include description of new features.
 - Release Notes are available upon request.
